Activity
Team Event

Ice stock - a combination of curling and boules - will quickly warm you up in Berlin's winter chill! Experience as a team why this centuries-old sport is still so popular today: With the help of our team guides, your teams - known as "Moarschaften"—will be introduced to the fine art of this winter sport and will compete against each other to score points. On our winter playground, in a festive Christmas atmosphere, each team plays on up to two eco-friendly plastic curling lanes with real-ice quality, aiming to score as many points as possible in the various rounds. But be careful - every shot can make a difference here! It's all about fun, excitement, and suspense right up to the very end, and with the full support of our engaging guides, you'll experience true team spirit. Of course, mulled wine or punch is available as an option! Afterward, you'll have truly earned a culinary treat to round off the day.
